2021-2022 Service Projects Fair
(and ICE CREAM!)

Learn about the organizations our club supports and how YOU can help!

The WRCF (Wichita Rotary Club Fund) uses YOUR DOLLARS to support projects in our local community. Thanks to you (and our WRCF Board) over $150,000 has been committed to help our community during the 2021-2022 Rotary year. These projects include:

- * Habitat for Humanity
- * Boy Scouts of America Quivira Council
- * HumanKind
- * Storytime Village
- * RIF (Reading is Fundamental)
- * Junior Achievement
- * Rotary Wraps
- * The Salvation Army

Come see what these organizations are doing and how you can donate YOUR TIME to make an even greater impact in our community.

Clay Small, Author: The Forger's Forgery

Clay Small started his thirty-year career at PepsiCo, Inc. in Wichita, KS. Clay G. Small was General Counsel of nearly all of PepsiCo's current and former divisions, including Frito-Lay, Pepsi-Cola, Pizza Hut, Kentucky Fried Chicken, and PepsiCo Wines & Spirits. He worked as Senior Vice President – Managing Attorney, PepsiCo, Inc. In that position, he was responsible for all legal matters arising out of PepsiCo's global operating divisions. Clay received his JD from Southern Methodist University (member of Law Review and Barristers) in Dallas and received his BA in English from Ohio Wesleyan University, where he was a two-time all-American soccer player and drafted by The Dallas Tornado. Clay is also a Fellow of the Dallas Bar Association. Settings in The Forger's Forgery include the Wichita Art Museum, Dwight D. Eisenhower Airport and the lovely town of Amsterdam, Netherlands.
