James Williams - ZOOM

Black Hills Energy Community Affairs Program Manager
Winter Costs of Energy

A fifth-generation Kansan, James joined Black Hills Energy in May 2019 and oversees the organization's community outreach for the state. At Black Hills Energy, he manages customer communication, marketing, local government affairs, and charitable giving totaling nearly $400,000 annually across Kansas.

In the community, James has served as president of the Public Relations Society of America, advisory member to the Kansas State University A.Q. Miller School of Journalism, board member for the American Red Cross, and co-founder of Wichita Startup Week. He is finalizing his M.B.A. from Emporia State. A graduate of Kansas State University, father to three-year-old Ellanor, and husband to Lindsey, James enjoys discovering the best hidden gems of the 65 communities he serves at Black Hills

All local Rotary clubs in our District are helping welcome our Afghan allies to Wichita! Here's how you can help:

Assistance is needed with trucks/drivers for deliveries and Wichita area warehouse storage. Please contact Kathy Sexton of the Derby Rotary Club if you can help - sextonkbs@gmail.com.

Please deliver donated items and kits Monday - Friday 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. to BRG Precision Products, 600 River Street in Derby until February 11. Call ahead 788-2000 to inform Traci, the receptionist, or Linda (ext. 225), the owner and fellow Rotarian. They will give you parking/drop off instructions based on when you're arriving to ensure no conflicts with business needs or other deliveries.
