Feb. 28th - Noon - LIVE at BOTANICA! Tony Mattivi "Hate in the Heartland"

Tony Mattivi is the retired federal prosecutor who prosecuted the three domestic terrorists who plotted to bomb a Somali apartment complex in Garden City Kansas.

In the spring and summer of 2016, spurred by paranoia and amped-up notions of patriotism—and fueled by anti-Muslim rhetoric from the Far-Right media—four men in southwestern Kansas began plotting a terrorist attack. Their target: the growing Somali immigrant community in their rural corner of the state. But what three of these men did not know was that the fourth was a local man who had infiltrated their homegrown militia as an informant for the FBI. Dan Day, an ordinary citizen of Garden City, became an extraordinary hero. His secretly taped conversations with the militia were pivotal in obstructing their plans and was the lynchpin in their resulting trials and convictions by Assistant U.S. Attorney Tony Mattivi. All three terrorists were sentenced to decades in prison.

Mattivi gives a "up close and inside view" of this case and the trial that brought these terrorists to justice. Says Mattivi of the trial, "this case changed the way the Department of Justice prosecutes domestic terrorism in the United States".

The Patch and The Stream Where The American Fell A true story of war, loss, and redemption

For Ed Sykes, aka World's Greatest Fighter Pilot, saying something is impossible only makes him want to do it more! The Patch and The Stream Where the American Fell is his inspiring story of never giving up, whether that be achieving his dream of being a fighter pilot, or fulfilling the oath: "Leave No Man Behind."

This story takes us all over the United States and South-East Asia as it recounts the events in the Ed's life as well as those of the military men and women serving the United States Air Force during the Vietnam War. He also delves into the often overlooked damage done to those who must function on the sidelines. The casualties of war are not only those that take place on the battlefield.

And what happens later, when time has passed, but the memories remain? What should a 66 year old fighter pilot do when he realizes he has one more mission that hasn't been completed? There really is only one thing to do. Strap in and take off on an adventure no one thinks will be anything other than a crash and burn. Afterburner Now!
