The Four-Way Test

Is it the TRUTH?	Is it FAIR to all concerned?
Will it build GOODWILL & BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?	Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

April 11th - Botanica
Sponsored by Envision
Holly Mulcahy
Concertmaster, Wichita Symphony Orchestra
Leveraging Music to Better Society

After hearing Scheherazade at an early age, Holly Mulcahy fell in love with the violin and knew it would be her future. Since then, she has won multiple positions in symphonic orchestras across the country while maintaining a robust solo career and a small non-profit organization.

Holly is currently serving as concertmaster of the Wichita Symphony Orchestra and Chattanooga Symphony & Opera. In addition to those roles, she also serves as Wichita Symphony's Partner for Audience Engagement; a position dedicated to building meaningful relationships with audiences by breaking down stereotypical barriers.

Mulcahy began developing her leadership skills at the renowned Peabody Institute of the Johns Hopkins University with former Baltimore Symphony concertmaster Herbert Greenberg. In recent seasons she has enjoyed serving as traveling concertmaster for Emmy Award winner George Daugherty's Bugs Bunny at the Symphony, and as guest concertmaster for the Columbus Symphony, Baltimore Chamber Orchestra, and a one-year appointment as interim concertmaster for Orchestra Iowa.

Herbie Harris, Chaplin

Promoting Positive Change in our Prison System

After completing a seven-year federal prison sentence in Leavenworth, KS, Herbie graduated from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary on a Saturday afternoon in November of 1997. The following Monday morning he entered full time Christian ministry by going to work for Prison Fellowship Ministries founded by Chuck Colson. He held the position of Starting Line Coordinator for Kansas and was then promoted to the position of Area Director of KS, NE, IA and MO.

In May of 2002 Herbie went to work for the Kansas Department of Corrections as a Chaplain at the Ellsworth Correctional Facility, overseeing the funding and building efforts of Kansas' first Spiritual Life Center with others following at the El Dorado Correctional Facility, the Hutchinson Correctional Facility and now the Winfield Correctional Facility. Herbie transferred from Ellsworth to the El Dorado Correctional Facility where he currently serves. He also oversees the Oswego Correctional Facility in Southeast Kansas.
